CHAIR LEG

(Statement)

Applicant, The Chair Leg Tackle Company, a firm domiciled in Williams Bay, Wisconsin, doing business at 158 Birch-Walnut Drive, Williams Bay, Wisconsin, and composed of the following members: Raymond T. Anderson and Oscar Tonnesen, both citizens of the United States, has adopted and is using the trade-mark shown in the accompanying drawing, for ARTIFICIAL FISH LURES, in Class 22, Games, toys, and sporting goods, and presents herewith five specimens showing the trade-mark as actually used in connection with such goods, and requests that the same be registered in the United States Patent Office on the Principal Register in accordance with the act of July 5, 1946.

Applicant first used the trade-mark on May 10, 1949, and first used the trade-mark in commerce among the several States of the United States which may lawfully be regulated by Congress on May 10, 1949. The trade-mark is placed on the goods, or on the packages containing the same, by printing or otherwise marking said trade-mark upon said goods, or upon said packages, or upon tags or labels affixed thereto.

(Declaration)

Raymond T. Anderson, being duly sworn, deposes and says under oath that he is a member of the firm of The Chair Leg Tackle Company, the applicant named in the foregoing statement; that he believes that said firm is the owner of the trade-mark which is in use in commerce among the several States of the United States; that no other person, firm, corporation, or association, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has the right to use such trade-mark in commerce which may lawfully be regulated by Congress, either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive; that said trade-mark distinguishes the goods of applicant from the goods of others; that the drawing and description truly represents the trade-mark sought to be registered; that the specimens show the trade-mark as actually used in connection with the goods; and that the facts set forth in the statement are true.
