UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE

Frabill Manufacturing Company, Milwaukee, Wis.

Act of 1946

Original filed, act of 1905, January 16, 1946; amended to application under act of 1946, Supplemental Register, August 3, 1949, Serial No. 494,833

SIX IN ONE

(Statement)

Frabill Manufacturing Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Wisconsin, located at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and doing business at 938 West Walnut Street, Milwaukee 5, has adopted and is using the mark shown, for FISH STRINGERS, in Class 22, Games, toys, and sporting goods, and presents herewith five facsimiles showing the mark as actually used in connection with such goods, the mark being applied or affixed to the goods by embossing or stamping it directly on the metal part of the goods, and requests that the same be registered in the United States Patent Office on the Supplemental Register in accordance with the act of July 5, 1946.

The mark was first used on September 26, 1945, and first used in commerce among the several States of the United States which may lawfully be regulated by Congress on September 26, 1945, and has been in lawful use in such commerce upon or in connection with the goods for the year preceding the filing of this application.

(Declaration)

Frank D. Matras, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the president of the Frabill Manufacturing Company, the applicant named in the foregoing statement; that he believes that said corporation is the owner of the trade-mark which is in use in commerce among the several States of the United States and that to the best of his knowledge and belief, no other person, firm, corporation or association, has the right to use such trade-mark in commerce which may lawfully be regulated by Congress, either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive, that the drawing and description truly represent the trade-mark sought to be registered, that the facsimiles show the trade-mark as actually used in connection with the goods, that the facts set forth in the statement are true.

FRABILL MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
By FRANK D. MATRAS,
President.
