COMFICIENT

STATEMENT

To the Commissioner of Patents:

South Bend Bait Company, of South Bend, Indiana, a corporation of Indiana, doing business at 1108 High Street, South Bend, Indiana, has adopted and used the trade-mark shown in the accompanying drawing, for FISHING TACKLE—NAMELY, FISHING RODS AND FISHING ROD HAND GRIPS—in Class 22, Games, toys, and sporting goods, and presents herewith five specimens showing the trade-mark as actually used by applicant upon the goods, and requests that the same be registered in the United States Patent Office in accordance with the act of February 20, 1905, as amended. The trade-mark has been continuously used and applied to said goods in applicant's business since on or about August 5, 1940.

The trade-mark is applied or affixed to the goods, or to the packages containing the same, by applying to the goods and to the packages containing the goods a printed label bearing the trade-mark.

The undersigned hereby appoints Oltsch & Knoblock (Reg. No. 14,076), a firm composed of George J. Oltsch and Eugene C. Knoblock, located at 711–712 J. M. S. Building, South Bend, Indiana, its attorneys, to prosecute this application for registration, with full power of substitution and revocation, to make alterations and amendments therein, to receive the certificate, and to transact all business in the Patent Office connected therewith.

SOUTH BEND BAIT COMPANY,
By V. W. LEUSCH,
Vice-President.
