UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE

Hermann-Murray Company, Minneapolis, Minn.

Act of 1946

Application September 20, 1948; originally filed, act of 1905, July 2, 1947, Serial No. 525,597

(Statement)

Hermann-Murray Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota, and located at Minneapolis, in the county of Hennepin and State of Minnesota, and doing business at 267 Irving Avenue, North, Minneapolis 2, Minnesota, has adopted and is using the trade-mark shown for FISH STRINGERS, in Class 22, Games, toys, and sporting goods, and presents herewith five specimens showing the trade-mark as actually used in connection with such goods, the mark being applied to cartons containing the fish stringers, and requests that the same be registered in the United States Patent Office on the Supplemental Register in accordance with the act of July 5, 1946.

The mark was first used on September 26, 1946, and was first used in commerce among the several States which may lawfully be regulated by Congress on September 26, 1946, and has been in lawful use in such commerce upon or in connection with the goods for the year preceding the filing of this application.

(Declaration)

Clare E. Hermann, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the president of Hermann-Murray Company, the applicant in application Serial No. 525,597 filed July 2, 1947, that he believes said corporation is the owner of the trade-mark which is in use in commerce among the several States and that no other person, firm, corporation or association to the best of his knowledge and belief has the right to use such mark in commerce which may lawfully be regulated by Congress, either in the identical form thereof or in any such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive, that the drawing filed with said application and description truly represents the mark sought to be registered, that the said specimens show the mark as actually used in connection with the goods, and that the facts set forth in the statement are true.

HERMANN-MURRAY COMPANY,
By CLARE E. HERMANN,
President.
