UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

JAMES E. HUBBART, OF SEATTLE, WASHINGTON.

TRADE-MARK FOR SALMON-EGGS FOR FISH-BAIT.

82,087. Statement and Declaration. Registered May 30, 1911.

Application filed January 28, 1911. Serial No. 54,157.

STATEMENT.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, JAMES E. HUBBART, a citizen of the United States, residing at Seattle, in the county of King and State of Washington, and doing business at 1901 Federal avenue, Seattle, Washington, have adopted and used the trade-mark shown in the accompanying drawing.

The trademark has been continuously used in the business of the applicant since May 1, 1908.

The particular description of goods to which the trademark is appropriated is salmon eggs for fish bait in Class 46, Foods and ingredients of foods.

The trademark is usually applied to the receptacles containing the goods by placing thereon printed labels upon which the trade-mark is shown.

JAMES E. HUBBART.

DECLARATION.

State of Washington county of King ss.

JAMES E. HUBBART being duly sworn, deposes and says he is JAMES E. HUBBART the applicant named in the foregoing statement; that he believes that the foregoing statement is true; that he believes himself to be the owner of the trade-mark sought to be registered; that no other person, firm, corporation, or association, to the best of his knowledge and belief, has the right to use said trade-mark, either in the identical form, or in any such near resemblance thereto, as might be calculated to deceive; that the said trade-mark is used by the applicant in commerce among the several States of the United States, that the drawing presented truly represents the trade-mark sought to be registered and that the specimens (or facsimiles) show the trade-mark as actually used upon the goods.

JAMES E. HUBBART.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, a notary public, this 17th day of January 1911.

[L. S.] G. WARD KEMP,
Notary Public.
